It is quite disturbing that a "Consent Decree" has been drawn up to give our National Parks to the birds. I spend quite a lot of time volunteering and donating money to ensure the future of elk, other wildlife and their habitat. After a busy fundraising season, and my husbands hectic work schedule we were going to travel to the Cape Hatteras Seashore for some rest relaxation and fishing despite the awful and unjustifiable price of diesel to travel.

As if times aren't bad enough I could not imagine how horrible it must be for the residents (humans) in this area who have survived by the seashore and fishing.
Have you lost sight of the history and culture of this area, or survival as a nation for that fact?

Since when have nesting birds and turtles determined the fate of human beings?
I truly resent the strongarming of special interest groups changing our society. Our public parks were established for the good of all. Theodore Roosevelt would never put up with this. There is going to be terrible ramifications to the people living and working in this area and I truly feel betrayed as a taxpayer and citizen of the US. This is OUR LAND!

We won't be coming to North Carolina since it is being given to the birds. Perhaps special interest groups should have to pay the U.S. back for taking over our public property.

It wasn't nice of someone to take down the signs but I can truly imagine how desperate the local people who need to make a living and have a history and culture tied to this seashore must feel. Certainly frustrated enough to walk out there and take the signs. I didn't read that any wildlife was affected. Lets get real here! Is our government officials interested in standing up for the good of all? It certainly doesnt look like it.
