Sandy MacPherson in the Jacksonville, FL, office is the FWS national sea turtle recovery coordinator. Closer to home, you'll not find better than Matthew Godfrey, who works for David Allen at the WRC.

Pete,

Please remind me who the USFWS turtle expert is that could possibly do a presentation at an upcoming RegNeg meeting (similar to what Anne, Ted and Mike did). We are starting to lay out topics for fall meetings and would want the presentation to coincide with "night driving" being an agenda topic.

For now, it would help me if you could remind me who the possible speaker is.

Thanks,

Mike Murray
