Doug and ALL

Thank you for your efforts.

I had no idea of the number or diversity of structures within the park. If an almost daily visitor, like myself, knew nothing of most of these structures am sure most visitors have no concept of their existence.

We, NCBBA Newsletter, would enjoy publishing an article contributed by NPS, concerning the presence of these structures.

Renee,

Attached is a list of the official database of historic structures and historic district at Cape Hatteras National Seashore. I was able today to gain access today to the NPS List of Classified Structures. This might be good someday for the SHPO to have access to this NPS database.
Jim I hope this help you.

Michael,
I'd let Doug Stover respond to this. He should have a list as the NPS did the count for the letter.

Mr. Southern,

The numbers I cited come from a letter addressed to me by NPS
Superintendent Mike Murray (dated 10-21-09).
"Mostly as a result of NPS efforts, Cape Hatteras National Seashore now has 44 individual sites and 6 historic districts listed on the National Register." In a conversation with Doug Stover @ NPS Manteo headquarters I was unable to get a listing of these sites/districts and he recommended that I contact your office.

I have hopes that somewhere there is a simple and complete list of these sites & districts. Any help that you or your agency can provide will be greatly appreciated..

Mr. Keene,

Your inquiry to N.C. State Historic Sites has been forwarded here to the State Historic Preservation Office.

What was your source for the numbers you cite for historic sites and districts within Cape Hatteras National Seashore? I believe the numbers may be taken from a report that includes places identified in a study or studies but that have not yet received any official designation as "historic" by listing in the National Register of Historic Places. If such a report was your source for the numbers, it seems that the administrative offices of the seashore would be the most likely location for the report. I am copying this note to Renee Gledhill-Earley, our environmental review coordinator, who is away this week but who may have knowledge of such a study undertaken in the seashore.

I have conducted a search on our maps in GIS and see only three National Register listings that are actually within the boundaries of the Cape Hatteras National Seashore. If you include Cape Lookout National Seashore, there are a few more. However, I cannot be certain that the boundaries for the seashores I downloaded from NCOneMap are current and complete.

National Register listings in Cape Hatteras National Seashore:
Bodie Island Light Station
Bodie Island Lifesaving/Coast Guard Station
Cape Hatteras Light Station

National Register listings in Cape Lookout National Seashore:
Portsmouth Village
Cape Lookout Village Historic District
Cape Lookout Light Station
Cape Lookout Coast Guard Station
Salter-Battle Hunting/Fishing Lodge.

If you add National Register listings on the Outer Banks that are not within the boundaries of the seashores, there are quite a few more, as follows:

Outer Banks National Register Listings:

Carteret	Cape Lookout Light Station (Federal Nomination)
Carteret	Cape Lookout Coastguard Station (Federal Nomination)
Carteret	Cape Lookout Village Historic District
Carteret	Fort Macon
Carteret	Portsmouth Village (Federal Nomination)
Carteret	The Queen Anne's Revenge Shipwreck
Carteret	Salter-Battle Hunting and Fishing Lodge
Dare	Ellsworth and Lovie Ballance House
Dare	Bodie Island Light Station
Dare	Bodie Island Lifesaving/ Coast Guard Station
Dare	Caffey's Inlet Lifesaving Station
Dare	Cape Hatteras Light Station
Dare	Chicamacomico Life Saving Station
Dare	First Colony Inn
Dare	Fort Raleigh National Historic Site
Dare	Hatteras Weather Bureau Station
Dare	(former) Kitty Hawk Life Saving Station
Dare	Markham-Albertson-Stinson Cottage
Dare	Rasmus Midgett House
Dare	Mattie Midgett Store and House
Dare	Nags Head Beach Cottage Row Historic District
Dare	Oregon Inlet Station
Dare	Salvo Post Office
Dare	Sam's Diner
Dare	Sea Foam Motel
Dare	U.S.S. Huron (Archaeology)
Dare	U.S.S. Monitor
Dare	Wright Brothers National Memorial

Dare Wright Brothers National Memorial Visitor Center
Hyde Ocracoke Historic District
Hyde Ocracoke Light Station (Federal Nomination)

Again, I expect the numbers you cite are taken from a report identifying additional historic places within the seashore that are not yet listed in the National Register.

I hope this information is helpful.

There are, I am told, "44 Individual Historic Sites and 6 Historic Districts" within Cape Hatteras National Seashore.
How can I find a list of these sites?
NPS personnel could not provide a comprehensive list and directed me to your office.

Your help will be greatly appreciated.
