The draft update was submitted to the State for review in mid-January. The staff at the Division of Coastal Management has indicated that the State review generally takes about 10 weeks. After their review, we will need to make adjustments and then get the document approved by the Dare Board of Commissioners and certified by the CRC. So my best guess is later in the summer or fall 2009.

Hi Donna.

Could you give me a status on the update to the 2003 Land Use Plan for Dare County? Do you have an expected date for completion?

Thank you.
