0025452

 From:
 Paul Stevens

 To:
 Frank Folb

 Bcc:
 Mike_Murray

Subject: Re: Fw: Woman loses chance at citizenship for Walking near a beach

Date: 02/23/2010 10:42 AM

Thanks Frank. I will stop by for a cup next time I'm down your way. Hope all is well.

Paul K. Stevens Chief Ranger National Park Service Outer Banks Group 1401 National Park Drive Manteo, NC 27954

(252) 473-2111 ext. 119 (office) (252) 475-8307 (cellular)

▼ "Frank Folb" <ffff1@mindspring.com>

violation

"Frank Folb" <ffff1@mindspring.com>

To <Paul_Stevens@nps.gov>

C

02/22/2010 08:58 AM Subject Re: Fw: Woman loses chance at citizenship for Walking near

a beach

PaulExact reason I sent the you tube location to you and Mike. I have tried with no success to get Bridget full name and phone number to talk with personally about the videi, but no luck so far. Like I said in my first email she and her family have been customers for years and I consid'er very genuine people. I will let you know more when I do get to speak with her. Stop by sometime if you are down this way, Frank ---- Original Message -----From: <Paul_Stevens@nps.gov> To: <ffff@mindspring.com>
Cc: "Mike Murray" <mike_murray@nps.gov>
Sent: Monday, February 22, 2010 8:22 AM Subject: Re: Fw: Woman loses chance at citizenship for Walking near a beach > Frank, > Superintendent Murray asked me to respond to your questions. haven't > been able to view the video since we don't have access to "You Tube" under > Department of the Interior IT security policy. As a result, I don't know > the name of the violator and cannot comment on the specifics of the case. > In general, our rangers have the latitude to give a verbal warning, > written > warning, or write a violation notice depending on the total circumstances > of each individual case. Evidently, the ranger believed that a > notice was warranted, rather than a written or verbal warning.

0025453

```
> violation notice is issued, neither the Superintendent nor I have the > authority to drop the charge since it is the policy of the U.S.
Attorney's > Office that only the Assistant U.S. Attorney handling the case can make a > decision to dismiss the charge. The violation would be considered a petty > offense in the federal legal system (i.e. similar to a minor infraction.
> such as a parking ticket), so I am surprised to hear it could have > impact whatsoever on citizenship.
> Thanks,
> Paul K. Stevens
> Chief Ranger
> National Park Service
> Outer Banks Group
> 1401 National Park Drive
> Manteo, NC 27954
> (252) 473-2111 ext. 119 (office)
> (252) 475-8307 (cellular)
>
>
               ffff1@mindspring.
               com
То
               02/16/2010 09:29
                                           Mike Murray
<mike_murray@nps.gov>
PM
                                            "Paul_Stevens@nps.gov"
>
                                            <Paul_Stevens@nps.gov>
               Please respond to Subject
               ffffl@mindspring.
                                           Fw: Woman loses chance at citizenship for Walking near a
                       com
>
                                            beach
>
> Mike,
> Have not spoken with you in some time and it really disturbs me to send > you > this email. Please view the youtube interview with a lady that owns a home > in Avon, but lives it Colo. When I received a cpy of it several things hit
> me.
> 1.Can it be the truth that a small infraction like this could harm
her
> chance to complete her citizen ship in the USA.
> 2.I know this lady, her husband and have watched her two beautiful > children
> grow up in visits to my shop.
> 3. Is there really no way that we (Neighbors as you called us the other > night). meaning we as in you and possibly some well intended neighbors
> could approach this legal situation andhave it come out in a better > 4. Have she already let the cows out of the barn by coming out now after
> the federal prosecution is complete.
> 5. I know who was interviewing this lady and I want to know that all is > valid as well in what took place and said.
```