

0026240

From: Cyndy Holda
To: jmcBeard
Bcc: Mike Murray
Subject: Re: Cape Hatteras National Seashore Weekly Resource Mgmt Field Summary for May 6 -12, 2010
Date: 05/17/2010 12:17 PM

Mr. Beard,
Currently, there are approximately 28 miles of National Seashore beaches open to ORV and over 52 miles open to pedestrians.

The resource protection closures established to protect breeding bird species will be lifted at the end of the 2010 bird breeding season which, in general, ends in mid-to-late August.

For current information, please check the Google Earth Map website at:
<http://www.nps.gov/caha/planyourvisit/googleearthmap.htm>

Cyndy M. Holda
Public Affairs Specialist
Cape Hatteras NS/Fort Raleigh NHS/Wright Brothers NM
252-473-2111 ext. 148
252-216-6455 cell
252-473-2595 fax
Email: cyndy_holda@nps.gov

▼ "jmcBeard" <jmc32@verizon.net>

"jmcBeard"
<jmc32@verizon.net> To <Cyndy_Holda@nps.gov>
cc
05/14/2010 06:21 PM Subject Re: Cape Hatteras National Seashore Weekly Resource Mgmt Field Summary for May 6 -12, 2010

When are the beaches going to open to orv's? When will we be able to come back to the Outer Banks and Hatteras ?
----- Original Message -----
From: <Cyndy_Holda@nps.gov>
Sent: Thursday, May 13, 2010 4:20 PM
Subject: Cape Hatteras National Seashore Weekly Resource Mgmt Field Summary for May 6 -12, 2010

>
> (See attached file: 05132010 CAHA Resource Mgmt Summary for May6 - May 12, 2010.docx)
>