I agree it is confusing. Your suggestion works for me. It cleans up the information and makes for an easier read, which is needed.

Paul

Take a close look at the Driving Regulations sign, section on night driving. The order of text and dates is confusing. One section has. Dates after the restriction. The next place the dates precede the restriction. Would be better. To consistently start with dates, followed by the restrictions. Also, it seems unclear to leave out the status of night driving for Nov 16 - April 30. Will that create any problems? In other words, if it will fit, I suggest we say...

May 1 - Sept 15: Vehicles prohibited on beach 9 pm - 7 am

Sept 16 - Nov 15: Night driving permitted unless otherwise posted

Nov 16 - Apr 30: Night driving permitted

Paul,

My recollection is that we do not need an arrow on the "Shoreline Closed" sign, because it is closed beyond the sign. The arrows on the "Shoreline Open" signs are needed to direct visitors to stay on the water-side of the closure signs.

Do you think the "closed" sign needs to say "Shoreline Closed (add) Past this Point" (or something like that)?

John,

The only thing I noticed was the arrow on the Shoreline Closed sign. Did we decide not to have this or did we want it?
