Subject: ORV Rule - Extension to Feb. 15, 2012

Cyndy ~

A couple of questions...

I just found out by way of Irene Noland's blog about the extension Judge Boyle granted the NPS regarding the deadline for implementation of the ORV Rule. Apparently the request was filed on or about November 15th, more than two weeks ago. I'm very surprised that this was not made public in the way of an announcement. Could you please elaborate? Is an official announcement forthcoming? I would appreciate your comments.

Additionally, a trailer has appeared on site at the Cape Hatteras Lighthouse. Shall I assume this is for temporary expansion of the bookstore or gift shop? Sorry, but I find it an eyesore and it kind of contradicts the park services' regulatory requirement to preserve 'sightscapes.' This, in addition to the bright orange dumpsters which dot our landscape and all of these VERY visible posts or PVC pipes which have been put up of late along the sound side beach area between Avon and Buxton, leaves me wondering what we've come to. What happened to aesthetics?

Thanks in advance for your kind response.

Best,
Pat
