Frank,

Thank you for your comments. I appreciate hearing your perspective. I don't know what the remaining months of the negotiated rulemaking committee process will hold. I do hope that all involved will take advantage of the opportunity to not only present their respective points of view, but also to negotiate and work out practical solutions with other Committee members whose interests are in conflict with your point of view. There must be some common ground to be found some place in this conflict.

Mike,
I began the attached letter before you released the cancellation of Octobers meeting and the move of the meetings, but now think it is much more needed than ever.
